

I SPY

things that use energy

---

Directions: Grab a partner and do some detective work. Investigate the space around you. How many different items can you spy that use energy? When you find one, write it down or draw a picture of it in the space below.

